GIRL KILLS FORMER ARMY CAPTAIN BECAUSE HE WAS MARRIED, NOTE DECLARES

KANSAS CITY, June 3.—Frank W. Anderson, floor manager in a department store here, was found shot to death in a hotel room early today, and Miss Peggy Marie Beal of Springfield, Ill., was found unconscious on the floor, a bullet wound in her breast. The two met during the war when he was an army captain and she was an army nurse.

Letters in the room, written by Anderson and the young woman, indicated that she came here expecting to marry him. Anderson was already married.

The letter contained phrases in "Esperanto", the "universal love language" which the two had studied together, according to other letters.

Miss Beal came here ten days ago and was introduced to a number of people as Anderson's wife. The two met in Dayton, Ohio, where they were stationed together, it is said. This note was found on the floor.

"My name is Peggy Beal. I am 29 years of age. I live in Springfield, Ill. I came to Kansas City with the intention of marrying Frank Warren Anderson. When I arrived I met him and we went to the Midwest Hotel together.

"He told me that he was married and that he was not divorced yet. Therefore he could not marry me. "There is nothing more to tell. I shot him because he brought me here and could not marry me. "Signed, Peggy Beal."

Education Will Be Plan Used in Fight Upon Tobacco Habit

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—A program of education—work through the schools, churches and parent teachers associations—is all that it contemplated for several years by the No-Tobacco League of America, according to Charles M. Fillmore of Indianapolis, general secretary of the organization.

"We have all the radical legislation that the country needs now," Mr. Fillmore added. Our program is to be one strictly of education, and will continue for several years. We are obtaining valuable assistance through the W. C. T. U. and the parent teachers associations and feel as though we are making real progress. We are not after the wholesale reformation of men."

The No Tobacco League of America was organized in West Virginia on March 10, 1915, and now has organizations in eight states: Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Minnesota, Kansas, Utah, Idaho and California—according to Mr. Fillmore.

The work of the league at present is concentrated on a campaign against the use of cigarettes by children and women, Mr. Fillmore said. He said also that high school girls and boys, rather than those in the universities and colleges, are more given to the use of tobacco. However, he expressed no great alarm over the situation as it pertains to girls of high school age.

UNITED STATES TO INVESTIGATE TURK ATROCITIES

(By the Associated Press) WASHINGTON, June 3.—The American government has accepted the invitation of Great Britain to be represented on the commission which is to investigate alleged Turkish atrocities in Antolia.

In announcing the decision today however, the state department explained that as understood here the commission's duties are to be limited to the making of inquiries into conduct purely for information of the governments participating. The United States, it was said, does not by its participation assume any further obligation or enter into any commitment.

HUNGARIANS WARNED TO ACCEPT YANK MONEY

(By the Associated Press) BUAPEST, June 3.—American Minister Bretano has warned the Hungarian public against tolerating the practice of money exchanges who are refusing to accept or are discounting American bank notes of the buffalo and Indian head issues. The prejudice against these notes does not seem to be based on any more substantial authority than the belief that because the Indians and buffalo are becoming extinct, the bank notes must be worthless.

BRITISH FORCES IN IRELAND GETS REINFORCEMENTS

(By the Associated Press) BELFAST, June 3.—The British forces in Northern Ireland were reinforced today by the arrival of 12 officers and 97 men of other rank, of the British Royal Air service. They were followed by 12 fighting planes.

A battery of howitzers was also landed. Several troop ships bringing English and Scottish regiments also entered the harbor today.

The military and Fermanagh are commandeering automobiles and boats and it is believed that the recapture of Belleek salient recently seized by the Irish Republican army forces is contemplated.

Next week promises to be a busy one in Belfast harbor, as large arrivals of military forces are expected daily. The flotilla leader, Wallace, and a destroyer arrived this morning.

NATION ON EDGE OF RAIL STRIKE

Walkout of Union Men As Result of Coming Meet Is Feared Today.

(By the Associated Press) CHICAGO, June 3.—Unexpected delay in final formal approval of the shopcrafts wage reduction, ordered formulated by the United States railroad labor board prevented the expected announcement and it was said at the board headquarters that decision would not be made public until early next week.

The absence of several members of the board called out of the city on business, made formal approval of the orders today impossible. Both the majority opinion and the minority opinion embodying the objection of the three labor members to the majority's cut, were completed last night and await the board's final action.

CHICAGO, June 3.—A railroad strike threatened the nation today as the railroad unions awaited the impending slash by the railroad labor board in the wages of additional classes of employees, other than plain service men.

B. M. Jewell, head of the employees department of the American Federation of Labor, declared that the wage reduction would probably result in a strike vote following next Tuesday's conference of railroad union chieftains at Cincinnati.

Leaders of 11 railroad unions will take part in the conference, Mr. Jewell said.

NAZIMOVA WILL BE WITNESS IN BIGAMY TANGLE

Russian Actress To Give Testimony Today in the Valentino Case.

WITH WEDDING PARTY

Newlywed Did Not Wear Purple Pajamas, Says Owner of Cottage.

(By the Associated Press) LOS ANGELES, June 3.—Alla Nazimova, Russian actress, was expected to be a witness here today in the preliminary hearing of Rodolph Valentino, film actor, on a charge of bigamy.

Madame Nazimova was said to be the original of a photograph introduced into the records yesterday as that of a member of the Valentino wedding party at Palm Springs, Calif., after the ceremony between him and Winnifred Hudnut at Mexicali, Lower California, May 13.

When that testimony was adduced the state began a search for Madame Nazimova with the hope it would be able to place her on the witness stand.

Cross examination has brought out the assertion that Valentino and his bride did not wear purple pajamas during their stay at Palm Springs, as stated in direct testimony.

This declaration came from Paul Ivanchevitchke, a friend of Valentino's, and leaser of the cottage which the latter and his bride occupied at Palm Springs.

"They wore silk Chinese robes," said Ivanchevitchke, "and Valentino wore white—not purple."

Valentino is accused of having committed bigamy through living with Miss Hudnut after the marriage ceremony performed before the final decree of divorce was granted him from Gean Acker, screen actress.

HOUSE TO FIGHT SENATE ON ARMY

Battle On Appropriation Bill Seen After It Passes First Lap.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—A determined fight between the senate and house before agreement is reached on the size of the army to be provided for in the appropriation bill for the next fiscal year, was in prospect today following its passage by the senate with over the house figure in bill.

enlisted and officers personnel. As put through the senate yesterday the bill, carrying an appropriation of $341,750,000, fixes the size of the army for the next fiscal year at an average of 12,530 officers and 133,000 men, compared with the house figures of 11,100 officers and 115,000 men. Continued discussion of differences is not expected to begin before Tuesday.

The bill was passed by the senate without a record vote. Nine democrats voted with the republicans majority in upholding the increase while six republicans opposed it.

After considerable debate the senate also accepted the amendment submitted by the agricultural committee appropriating $7,500,000 for continuance of work on the Muscle Shoals, Ala., federal power project.

Roy Stegall, who visited parents, Rev. and Mrs. B. P. Stegall for several days, returned to Hot Springs this afternoon.

Three Pleaded Guilty In Booze Cases and Take Jail Sentence

Lee Thomas, arrested in connection with a raid upon an alleged illicit still three miles north of Stratford, and Roy Boyd and Ellis Boyd, arrested several days ago ten miles west of Ada in connection with running a still, entered pleas of guilty yesterday before County Judge Tal Crawford and were sentenced to terms in the county jail.

Thomas was given a fine of $50 and a 30-day sentence in the county jail. The two Boyds, after pleading guilty to both possession and manufacturing, were fined $100 each, with a sentence of 60 days in the county jail.

Liquor charges were filed yesterday in the county court against Ada Vaughn and Paul Combs. The former is charged with possessing and the latter with manufacturing. Henry Rawls is charged with pointing a weapon and Frank Hickenbottom with defrauding a boarding house keeper.

MOONSHINING IS FALLING OFF NOW

Brents Says Average of Stills Captured Drops One per Day.

A still a day. An arrest a day. Three thousand gallons of "drinks" destroyed each month.

This is the record of the state prohibition department, according to information released today by T. E. Brents, head of the Field Division of the department, who is here spending the week-end with his family.

And this is a great reduction over the record of some five or six months ago, he states. There used to be a time when "moonshining" was so popular in Oklahoma that officers easily averaged about three stills a day.

Records at the state prohibition office show that prohibition is a success, according to Mr. Brents. He said that reports from sheriff over the state were also to this effect. People who have been making corn whiskey are gradually "getting away from the habit."

M. F. Meaders, state prohibition director, was quoted by Mr. Brents as being of the opinion that prohibition agents make the same progress within the next year that has been made within the past six months, people of the state will easily become aware of the results, without having to be told. This would indicate that enough progress is being made to cause state officers to believe they will have moonshining and bootlegging under complete control within a reasonable time.

In giving reasons why prohibition is becoming more effective, he pointed out that it had now become practically impossible to obtain old licensed whiskey. Tris left the consumers of intoxicants solely dependent on corn whiskey and other amateur brews to satisfy their thirst, he pointed out.

And this amateur practice mentioned is not highly successful, he further contends. The number of deaths in the state from poison liquors is evidence of this fact. Many people will not keep the stuff because of the ever increasing danger of getting liquors containing deadly poisons, which easily form in stills rigged up with any kind of material.

Local officers over the state are also coming to lend more and more assistance to the prohibition agents. There are now from twelve to fifteen men working the 77 counties of the state under Mr. Brents.

More than two thirds of the people in India are Hindus.

Fatty Is Director

LOS ANGELES, June 3.—Roscoe C. (Fatty) Arbuckle, former film comedian, whose pictures were ruled off the screen shortly after his acquittal by a San Francisco jury on a charge of manslaughter growing out of the death of Virginia Rappe, film actress, has become a picture director. He is directing "Buster" (Joseph) Keaton, in a new comedy, it is stated.

It is not known whether Arbuckle has accepted as final the decree of Will H. Hays, head of the motion picture producers association, that Arbuckle himself remain off the screen.

EXCITEMENT RUNS HIGH BUT WAR OF BLACKS AT KIRVIN DOESN'T START

KIRVIN, Texas, June 3.—Quiet continued in all Freestone county after daybreak this morning, following a night of intense excitement due to reports of fears of a race riot. An airplane was flying over the affected community watching for potential trouble. White persons living in isolated places were moving to more thickly settled places. Few negroes were to be seen any place. The negro settlement in Kirvin was unusually quiet.

OLD CHINESE LEADER IN SHADOW OF SWORD

(By the Associated Press) PEKING, June 3.—General Wu Pei Fu, who recently wiped out General Chang Tsu Lin, Manchurian warlord, from the state of Peking opities, today declared that if Sun Yat Sen, president of the republic of Southern China, persisted in opposing plans for the unification of China, he too must be eliminated by the sword, if necessary.

Horrors! Are Men Becoming Rapidly Girlish in Dress?

History repeats itself, so goes an old adage. But when history reverses itself, then that is different.

Local clothing store men say that history—or rather age old practices and customs are turning back.

It is like this. Men are becoming effeminate. More so every day, with each season. So say clothing men. And this is not only among young "jelly beans" either. Stern, hardened and hard boiled business men are joining in the practice.

This startling revelation was made today when the opinion of a number of the leading local authorities was asked on this matter. And they can back up their claim.

Where once men preferred only the simplest and most reserved type of clothing—for it is in this way they are bending towards that which is feminine—they now want the latest. Close fitting, half belt, checks and four pocket suits are preferred. And the startling part is that most of the suits will resemble those in the pattern book of coat suits for women, once they are compared.

One of the authorities on suits said he had noticed repeatedly the increasing desire of old men for the more youthful styles. The more feminine they are, the better they sell.

A large number of men prefer effeminate styles because of their improved service and ease with which they are worn. Practically all of the opinions given were along the same line.

As a parting shot one clothing man said he had also noticed that some women were taking to men's clothing. Riding clothes, sport models and other similar dress is tending somewhat to become the style worn by the fair sex.

New Smoke Screen of Navy May Eliminate Dangers of the Old

(By the Associated Press) WASHINGTON.—Having originated the first smoke screen ever used by any navy, the American navy is now developing a new smoke screen. Instead of the dense black smoke, used by the German navy in escaping the British fleet in the battle of Jutland, the new-fangled American screen for ship operation is to be a dense fog and made at a considerable saving of money.

In disclosing Navy department's experiment with the new fog screen Rear Admiral Robison, chief of the bureau of engineering, told a senate committee that it was believed the fog screen would be even more impenetrable than the old black smoke clouds. The latter are made by feeding too much fuel in the ship boilers. This, Admiral Robinson said, was costly, wasting fuel and fouling boiler tubes. In some cases it weakened boiler walls and was dangerous, he said. The engineering bureau now is perfecting plans to make the fog screen by feeding oil above the boilers, just below the smoke outlets, and admiral Robinson said the experiments so far justify belief that the new fog screen will be more effective and less costly.

(By the Associated Press) According to reports here the bodies of LeRoy and Allie Gibson, negroes, killed yesterday in a fight with officers, disappeared in the night. Late yesterday they were reported lying where killed, but this morning were said to have been moved to some unknown place.

Officers continued to devote efforts to prevent crowds from congregating. They sought particularly to keep white from going to the negro settlements and negroes from the white settlements. While every thing is quiet on the surface, there is an undercurrent of tense feeling.

KIRVIN, Tex., June 3.—Race riots of a serious nature which were reported last night as being feared near here had failed to materialize at an early hour today. Armed men guarded the streets of Kirvin and a house occupied by negroes near Simsboro, about five miles from here, but according to the peace officers, little trouble was expected.

Deputy sheriffs and policemen from Mexico hurried here when the first reports went out, returned to their homes last night and Freestone county officials informed many who had started for Kirvin they should return as the sheriff and his deputies had the situation under control. The reports of the riot followed the attempt of City Marshal of Kirvin, Otis King and deputy sheriffs, to arrest LeRoy Gibson, a negro, at the home of the grandfather of the young negro. Gibson is said to have tried to escape and was shot and captured. As the officers started to their automobile, shots were fired at them, and they returned the fire. Allie Gibson, a brother of the prisoner, was killed. The prisoner is said to have grabbed one of the officers, and then was himself killed. None of the officers were injured.

No Fighters Found. The most prevalent report was that about 75 negroes, heavily armed, had barricaded themselves in a large house on a farm. Investigation failed to disclose them in the house. In the meantime, hundreds of men from nearby towns started to the scene of the trouble.

The community is near where a 17 year old school girl was assaulted and murdered with an ax a few weeks ago, three negroes being burned to death and one hanged for alleged connection with the case. It is said that LeRoy Gibson was sought to explain some things in the same case.

Feeling has been high since the lynching of the negroes and many rumors that the negroes intended retaliation have been heard. One cause of the rumors of the race riot last night was said by some to be "overwrought nerves."

HARDING SHIELDS DAUGHERTY, SAYS SENATOR STANLEY

(By the Associated Press) WASHINGTON, June 3.—President Harding was charged today in the senate by Senator Stanley, democrat Kentucky, with attempting to "stifle if not muzzle" the press to prevent publication of attacks on Attorney General Daugherty and with making "desperate attempts to shield a man who does not shield himself; to protect a man who does not protect himself."

In the course of his attack, Senator Stanley assailed Mr. Daugherty as the nefarious and crooked pardon broker who makes it his business to deceive the president, that men may plunder women in time of peace and rob the federal government in time of war."

In its issue of Friday the News stated in its report of the Visible Voters League meeting of the evening previous, that George W. Burris said that "both Catholics and Jews fought for world democracy." Mr. Burris states he was not fairly quoted in this; that his full statement was "both Catholic and Protestant, Jew and Gentile." The News tries to be accurate above all else and is always glad to correct any error to which its attention may be called.

BIBLE THOUGHT OF TODAY

ABUNDANTLY SATISFIED.—How excellent is thy loving-kindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings. They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.—Psalm 36:7,8.

OKLAHOMA'S PROGRESSIVE TEACHERS.

It is estimated by the state department of education that 10,000 students will be enrolled for the summer terms of the six teachers' colleges. This is convincing proof that Oklahoma has a live bunch of teachers who are trying to equip themselves thoroughly for their work and proves that the school system is rapidly improving. A teacher without professional training is like a fellow attempting to do the work of a printer, a carpenter or other artisan without some previous training. Educating a person is like placing work tools in the hands of a new apprentice, the tools are all right and absolutely necessary, but the beginner needs some one to show him how they are to be used to the best advantage, else he will spoil a lot of good material and accomplished nothing.

EUROPEAN DOLLAR CHASERS.

Europeans are in the habit of sneering at Americans as dollar chasers, but when an American comes their way with a well filled purse they do some chasing themselves. Often it is some offshoot of a rotten family tree of the nobility who offers to share his title with the daughter of a millionaire in exchange for a generous slice of said millions with which to bolster up his dilapidated fortunes, but it goes on down the line to the humblest shop keeper who haunts his path in an endeavor to separate him from a few of the dollars he succeeded in chasing down in America. The jingle of American dollars sounds good to all of them.

As usual Texas leads the South in ginning the first bale of cotton. It is a trifle early but serves to remind us that the cotton picking season is not so far away. It is still too early to more than guess at the outcome of the contest with weevils, but it is certain that having had one year's experience with the pest the farmers will put up the best fight they know how. It is safe to say that with intensive cultivation, such as most of the farmers will employ, more cotton will be made than last year, even though the weevils are numerous.

Attorney General Daugherty complains that the states are overdoing the passing of the buck to the federal courts; that many laws covered by both state and national statutes are passed up to federal authorities for enforcement. In view of the frequent invasions of the rights of the individual states by the federal government in recent years this complaint comes with a poor grace. The element who have sought to virtually abolish state lines are now having a disagreeable taste of their own medicine.

ELECTION TUESDAY.

On Tuesday the voters of Ada will pass judgment on the proposal to issue bonds for the erection of a memorial hall. That the city needs a large hall for public meetings and conventions goes without saying. This is the only thing it lacks of being on a level with the best towns of the state and this method is the only feasible one by which it may be secured. The hall will belong to the people and it is for them to say whether it shall be built or not.

The guy to whom Mathilde McCormick, grand daughter of John D. Rockefeller is most peeved by the allegations of the girl's mother that he has an eye on old John D.'s millions and the possibility of annexing a few of them some day rather than the good qualities of his bride-to-be. That is the way with all of the European gang, but they never court poor girls, however beautiful one may be.

HARD NUT TO CRACK.

No one has yet attempted to answer this question which Congressman Herrick put to his colleagues a few days ago: "How large a basket would be required to be put into it all the good that this congress has done for the common people, and how old would a child have to be to carry it?" Really they don't make baskets that small.

The law of supply and demand was ignored by the big oil interests when the price of gasoline was advanced a cent on the gallon. Immense quantities are held in storage and the production of crude oil holds up to a high mark, but just because they are in a position to fleece the public the price fixers are going after all in sight.

So far as we have noticed, the challenge for a series of debates issued to his Democratic opponents by Judge Thomas H. Owen has not been accepted. A round of this kind would liven up the campaign quite a bit and Ada would be a good place to start the ball to rolling.

The bootleggers along the northern border are reported to be making plans to chip into a common fund with which to pay fines and other expenses incurred by members of the fraternity engaged in smuggling booze in from Canada. A sort of insurance against trouble.

WAGGING TONGUES AND LIGHT GOSSIP DELAY THE WASH

The Forum of the Press

WAGES MUST BE ADJUSTED—NOT SLASHED.

(Muskegon Phoenix)
We have had little sympathy with either the railroads or the railroad men in their wage controversy that has been threatening open warfare almost since Armistice Day. The men's unwillingness to relinquish a single advantage gained because of the world war has amounted to sullen defiance. While demanding that the rest of the nation "return to normal" they have consistently refused to do their part. The railroads have played their game just as great corporations would be expected to play it, cold-bloodedly, brutally, asking all for themselves, giving nothing to humanity.

The homely Maxim that "all that goes up must come down" is as immutable as Newton's laws. The railroad men themselves have not believed that freight rates could be reduced unless the scale of war time wages was lowered. Even railroad stockholders do not invest their money wholly with eleemosynary intent and unless the income exceeds the outgo the railroad will go bankrupt.

We assume that both freight rates and wages must be adjusted. We say "adjusted" advisedly. Neither can be cut indiscriminately, without regard to standards or living if we are to have peace or justice. And it is possible for the railroad labor board, in its anxiety to return to "normalcy," to cut too deeply, to slash to the quick instead of pruning away the surplus flesh. We are frank to confess that we are not able to intelligently discuss the recent reduction in the wages of the "common laborers" because we have not before us the data that was available to the board. But we do not hesitate in saying that it appears that, with this class of laborers at least, the lowest scale has been reached, if it has not been exceeded.

It doesn't matter so much what the caliber of "earning capacity" of these men are, whether they be Mexican, Slavs or what-nots. In America a man who honestly toils is entitled to a living—something more than an existence. His mode of life may not require much but if he performs his task diligently and well he is entitled to that and a bit for a "rainy day." Such a doctrine is not socialism. It is the doctrine which opposes it that makes men see red.

Our sympathies are inclined to be with the maintenance men. Thirty or thirty-five cents an hour is not a great deal of money and it is indeed difficult for a man of today to maintain a family upon less. The railroad labor board should make haste slowly. Freight rates must come down, wages must be re-adjusted but there is, most assuredly, such a thing as going too far.

Invite 'Em to Washington.

(Oklahoma News.)
The coal barons were invited to Washington by Secretary Hoover and, after being politely told that the government didn't want to horn in on business, were politely invited to kindly refrain from gouging the public.

The steel barons were invited to the White House and, after being politely told that the government didn't want to horn in on business, were politely invited to get together, cut out the 12-hour work day and give steel workers a chance to become human beings and possibly 100 per cent Americans.

While the U. S. Chamber of Commerce was in session at Washington, our beloved presidently invited representative business men to try something new—to introduce conscience into commerce.

All this was done with perfect politeness and in the kindest spirit. Why not try it out on bootleggers and other offenders of the proprieties and violators of law? Invite a large number of leading bootleggers to Washington and urge upon them—politely, of course—to inject a little more conscience into bootlegging and a whole lot less wood alcohol.

If politeness and the invitational method of correction works out with the bootleggers, then we may be able to cut out the rough stuff in dealing with crime and appeal to the conscience of pickpockets, deputy-sheriff gunmen in West Virginia, labor slugs in Chicago and even burglars in general.

If there's any virtue in trying anything, once, we might try polite invitation and appeals to conscience all along the troublesome pathway of crime.

LEGION OFFERS $1500 FOR BEST ESSAY WRITTEN

(By the Associated Press)
INDIANAPOLIS.—To encourage higher education and patriotic research among school children of the country, the American Legion is sponsoring a national essay contest which has for prizes $1,500 in scholarships. The contest opens Friday, June 2.

The service men's organization has asked the cooperation of state, city and county school superintendents, seeking contributions of essays from every eligible school child. Americanism officers of Legion posts will assist the educational authorities in the effort.

All girls and boys between the ages of 12 and 18 years inclusive are eligible. The subject to be written on is: "How the American Legion can best serve the Nation." The rules provide that each contestant shall submit but one essay of not more than 500 words, and that essays shall be written in an affirmative and constructive way. Spelling, penmanship and neatness will be considered in judging the winners, as will the age of the contestant.

County superintendents of schools are asked to name three judges to select the best essay in each county. The winning essays of the counties then will be judged by a state committee, selected by the state superintendent of schools or school commissioner, for the purpose of selecting three state winners. Final selection of first, second and third national prize winners will be made from the three best essays of each state, and will be announced several weeks after September 20 by the national judges, whose names will be given later.

The three national prizes will be known as American Legion scholarship awards, consisting of a first prize of $750, second of $500 and a third of $250. First prize in each state will be a silver medal, with a bronze medal for second prize and additional prizes awarded in different states.

Busy Public Official Says Theodor's Black-Draught Helps Him Keep Physically Fit.

Clay City, Ky.—"I have been in business here for twenty-one years; am also coroner, riding the Kentucky hills and hollows in all kinds of weather and under all kinds of conditions," says Mr. Sam T. Carr, of this place. "To be able to do so, I must keep physically fit, and Theodor's Black-Draught is my standby."

"These trips used to give me headaches, and that, I found, came from hurried meals or from constipation. I was convinced that Black-Draught was good, so now I use it, and it gives perfect satisfaction. It acts on the liver, relieves indigestion, and certainly is splendid. I am never without it."

When you have a feeling of discomfort after meals, causing a bloating sensation, headache, bad breath, and similar common symptoms, try taking a pinch of Black-Draught after meals—a pinch of the dry powder, washed down with a swallow of water. This has been found to assist the stomach and liver to carry on their normal work, and helps prevent, or relieve, constipation.

Your druggist can supply you with this well-known, purely-vegetable liver medicine. Insist upon Theodor's, the original and only genuine Black-Draught liver medicine. NC-137a

The Rainbow.

(By Welborn Hope)
An innovation is the rainbow.
A shower-tinted Heaven dart;
Perhaps for Cupid, at the start,
By Vulcan half completed:
A silver circle 'twas to be
To crown a queen of pageantry.
To be molded into shape
By cooling reddened lightning bars
And beating them with cugelled stars,
Until it rounded out.
But our forsooth a dauber vain,
Sneaked in thru Vulcan's window pane,
And found the precious work not done;
And then with paint and brush applied,
With most artistic talent tried,
Old Vulcan's dearest hues . . .
He found it morning next,
On top his anvil gaudy smeared,
With all the tints to him endeared,
And iridescent to the eye.
In rage, to welkin balconies,
He tossed the thing to top the breeze.
That brought the morning show-ers down;
But when all mortals were behooved
To scan its beauty, then it proved
A multi-colored boomerang:
For when stern Jupiter withdrew
The shades of rain and made them dew,
Inanely spreading all the earth,
It blushed an even rosier hue,
For nudeness not its fairy due,
Nor its intended dower;
So always cast and then recast,
As long as gorgeous colors last,
We view its waning splendor,
Returning to its maker's hand,
When rain recedes; an uncompleted band.

Miss Roach Honored

Dashing Dan Cupid strode into the midst of local society this week, reminding all that

"Love spreads his welcome, where he goes and touches all things with his rose."
When the ushers of summer drew back the curtains of springtime this morning, they presented the little god of love himself playing a roguish title role in one of the prettiest romantic scenes the city has witnessed in many months. It was an announcement breakfast at the Harris Hotel by Miss Anna Weaver Jones honoring Miss Carrie Mae Roach, whose engagement to Bertram W. Randels of Okemah has just been made public.

The dining room was beautifully decorated in smilax, and corsages of sweet peas were at each plate. A big basket of sweet peas formed the central decoration of the table. Three tiny Cupids, with hands linked smiled from each place card and the announcement itself a holder Cupid held erect a miniature pink candle.

Ten young ladies, most of whom live in Ada, were guests of Miss Jones for the occasion. They are Miss Carrie Roach, the honoree, and Misses Natalie Manville, Ophelia Gray, Pearl Gay, Clarine Roach, sister of the bride-to-be Eunice Bills, Lilla McKendree and her guest, Miss Elizabeth Black of Stillwater, and Mrs. Mae Noble, Okemah, who is a member of the summer term faculty at East Central college. Miss Roach is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bat Roach of 319 West Twelfth street and has been prominently connected with local social circles since girlhood. She is a graduate of Ada high school and of East Central Teachers college. Last year she taught in Okemah where she met Mr. Randels, the bridegroom-to-be.

U. C. T. Luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McFarland had for their guests at a luncheon at the Harris Hotel the local United Commercial Travelers. A delightful hour was spent and several interesting talks were made.

C. E. Watts, past grand counselor for the state of Oklahoma and now supreme representative of the state, was down from Columbus, Ohio, for the occasion.

The local chapter is one of the liveliest in the state. Recently it captured two of the loving cups at the state convention at Tulsa.

The guests present were: A. T. Keltner, J. E. Russell, C. W. Zorn, L. J. Smith, M. C. Gladden, H. B. Roach, J. A. Ridling, L. E. Pettigrew, Warren Edwards, F. W. Meaders, F. E. Gray, H. G. Hill, A. W. Parker, D. A. Davis, Merritt L. Jones, C. M. Thussen, Chas. M. Miller, W. H. Holmes, L. E. Burman and R. D. Starbuck.

SCREEN STAR SAVES LIFE OF DERELICT

A situation that had not been written in the story of "The Fox" by its author and star, Harry Carey, occurred while scenes were being made on the Mojave desert more than a hundred miles from civilization.

With Carey and his company filming "The Fox" was a full troop of cavalry from the Presidio at Monterey. The officers and some of the actors sat about chatting one day when suddenly there appeared on the horizon a queer sight. Peter O'Rork, a desert rat, drove up in a rickety cart made of barrel staves behind a strange and hungry-looking little burro.

Crazed by the desert heat and with only a little food and water, he had made his last stand and asked only that death relieve him from his difficulties. Given extra rations and water, the erratic old man and his queer vehicle disappeared over the rim of the desert and soon were lost to view.

Shortly afterward Harry Carey returned and heard the story. Without hesitating a moment he got into his machine and dashed after the ragged old derelict of the desert. With his high-powered car bucking hub-high sand, the virile western star finally came up on the old fellow, who sat with head in hands waiting for the end. Tenderly the old prospector was put into the star's machine and taken back to civilization and a hospital.

At the present moment Peter O'Rork is a valued member of the ranch life of Harry Carey and Harry Carey, Jr., finds much pleasure in pulling his straggly beard. "The Fox" is being shown at the McSwain theater today.

COLLEGE MEN ABUSE VACATION AND RUIN AMATEUR ATHLETICS

Coach Yost Says There's No Middle Ground Near Professionalism.

ANN ARBOR, June 3.—Declaring amateurism in athletics cannot continue to exist in colleges and Universities unless student athletes are prevented from engaging in professional sports, Coach Fielding H. Yost of the University of Michigan voices his objection to permitting college athletes to become professionals in any line of sport during the vacation periods.

Coach Yost is chairman of the Western Conference committee that recently went on record as opposed to participation, on the part of college athletes, in professional activities.

"There can be no compromise between amateur and professional activities," Coach Yost said. "Either the two must be kept distinct, or amateurism will be swallowed up."

"Nearly all those favoring a compromise declare students should be permitted to play baseball during summer months for money with which to continue their education. The argument is advanced that these players would be amateurs in spirit while playing professional baseball and using only temporarily their athletic skill for gain."

Colleges in Danger.

"Much more is at stake, however, than permitting college athletes to play for money during the summer. If this practice were permitted it would be but a short time until our college teams would be composed of a more or less isolated group of professional athletes. The days of high class amateur athletics as an important part of every student's life and an activity in which every student would have an equal opportunity with each other student would be passed."

"The influence of professionalism is, in itself, detrimental to a college man. It tends to make him dissatisfied to play the game for its own sake and makes his athletic powers a marketable commodity, rather than a means of recreation and self expression."

"Sacrifice of self to a group or institution for attainment of a common goal is the first lesson taught by athletics. This means co-operation, team play, loyalty and service. The qualities of determination, will power, persistence and courage, both physical and moral, nowhere can be better learned than on the athletic field."

Northwestern To Go After First Titles In College Sports

(By the Associated Press)

EVANSTON, Ill.—Northwestern University's athletic situation has reached a crisis and during the next few years she will become a vigorous contender for conference championships and inter-collegiate honors in all sports. This decision was reached as a result of a gigantic mass meeting of every man on the Evanston campus under the direction of the Alumni association.

For one hour and a half, the men listened with sober countenances to the words of Dr. George Craig Stewart, class of '02 now rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church in Evanston; Dean Hielman of the Commerce School; Dean Ralph P. Dennis of the School of Speech; and Charles E. War, president of the Evanston chamber of commerce.

Dr. Stewart declared that it was not the lack of men that hindered Northwestern in athletics. It was the lack of the right kind of men. Dean Hielman said that Northwestern must either turn the tables or "chuck" athletics for the second time. He further accused the faculty of not giving whole hearted and united support to inter-collegiate athletics and deplored the fact that many faculty members did not rise with the students and applaud the "N" men when they filed into the meeting.

A student committee consisting of the captains in each major sport, president of the student council, editor of the Daily Northwestern and president of the Athletic association, was appointed to co-operate with the special alumni committee in probing the athletic situation.

Trio of Tennis Stars Are Best University Ever Has Produced

NORMAN, June 3.—(Special)—The greatest record ever made by a University of Oklahoma tennis squad was recorded by Ben K. Parks, Stillwater, captain and manager; John Harrington, Oklahoma City; and George O'Connell, Chicago.

This trio went through in 1922 spring season undefeated in tournaments and with but three matches charged to its loss column out of more than forty played. Texas, Oklahoma Aggies, Kansas Aggies, Chicago, Illinois, Indiana, Purdue, Drake, Iowa State, Kansas, Michigan and Michigan Aggies fell the string of the Sooners victories and the only defeat to mar the almost perfect record was the elimination of Harrington and Parks from the doubles title of the Missouri Valley conference at Lawrence, Kan., Sunday, May 28.

INDIANS ARRIVE TO MEET LOCALS IN GAME SUNDAY

Brown's Indians are here for a baseball game with Ada Independents, at the Fair Grounds Park Sunday afternoon, beginning at 3:30. Little advance "dope" is available as to how good the Indians are but a statement from their manager said he had signed the best Indian baseball players in the state.

Manager Green of the Independents reported today his team was ready to go and that Lefty Waner would fill the box. It was also intimated that one or two new faces may be seen on the local line-up. No definite arrangements had been made up to noon today as to whether trucks would be furnished to carry fans to the ball park, although the matter is under consideration.

Manager Green reported this morning that arrangements had been completed for the free transportation of all fans to the ball park who had no means of getting there. Trucks will be waiting at the corner of Main and Broadway and those who want to go to the game must come to this place. Trucks will also be furnished to bring fans to the city after the game it was said.

ED SMITH DUE TO MEET MONTEGGOFF HERE ON MONDAY

Ed Smith, Denison, Texas, will substitute for Blondie McDaniels, Fort Worth giant, on the local wrestling card next Monday night, Charles Johnson, sport manager of the American Legion, announced today following the receipt of word that McDaniels would be unable to appear against Bob Montegoff here because of illness.

Smith, according to sport records, is fully as capable a man as McDaniels; Johnson said, and is expected to give Montegoff one of the hardest tussles of his mat career.

Montegoff, champion of the navy, lives at Ada and has been restless for an engagement. He has had hard weeks of training recently and will show fans some of the form he has used in clearing his claim to the belt among all the U. S. fleets. The big Allen man is taking daily workouts at the American Legion hall and an invitation has been extended to all sport fans of the city to watch him work any afternoon.

Giving subscriptions or donations to charity is viewed with suspicion in Burmah.

With both the Sooner doubles and singles entry going into the championship round at the valley tournament, the singles title was the one brought home to Oklahoma. Ben Parks repeated his stunt of 1921 by cleaning up on the entire field for the lone entry championship.

This three man team, probably the best Oklahoma ever had, will be intact for the 1922-23 season. Parks will probably represent the university in the national collegiate tournament to be held at Chicago in June.

IT'S A BIG NIGHT

Tonight for the O'Flannigans, the Burkes, the Flemings, O'Connors and other good old names of baseball.

For the latest boy wonder to be hooked by a major league club is one Joe Flynn—plain ordinary Joe Flynn.

For several years now the scribes have mourned the departure of the good old American names from the diamond and the influx of such fancy handles as De Vore, Le Bourveau, and other tough names for the box score hounds to handle. Now comes Joe to make life a bit happier.

Flynn is the captain and shortstop of the New York University baseball team. He has given John McGraw his word he'll become a Giant in the near future—and be ready for a tryout next spring.

Flynn's long forte is hitting. In the first fourteen games his college played this year Flynn slammed out an average of one home run a game—fourteen all told. He hit for an average of .514.

His work at short is said to be all that could be desired of a youngster although he has minor fielding faults.

The old boys will be pulling for him, you can bet, with the name he has.

NEW STAR LOOMS NOW ON HITTING SKY OF LEAGUES

(By the Associated Press)

CHICAGO, June 3.—Ed "Bing" Miller, the slugging outfielder of Philadelphia, is giving George Sisler and Ken Williams, the St. Louis stars, a hot race for the leadership in batting and home run hitting in the American League, according to averages released today.

"Bing" smashed out a brace of homes in his last six games and now has an even dozen—just one less than the slugging Williams, who jumped out in front at the start of the season. The averages include games of Wednesday.

Sisler is topping the batters with an average of .440. The batting mark of the St. Louis star was given a set-back in the series between the White Sox and Browns; but the St. Louis favorite appears to have again struck his stride. In last 31 times at bat he has driven out 14 hits, giving him a total of 76 hits thus far. He leads in total base hitting with 110, which include eleven doubles, three triples and five homers. Miller is right on his heels with an average of .387.

Sisler Best Stealer.

Sisler is giving the base stealers the dust, his nearest rival being his teammate Williams. Sisler has stolen 18 bases while Williams has ten.

George Toporcer, the slugging shortstop of the St. Louis Cardinals, who topped the National League batters a week ago with an average of .404, connected safely only four times in 31 times at bat, and fell into thirteenth place with a mark of .336.

Hank Gowdy, the Boston catcher, is the only batter in the League hitting over the .400 mark. His average for 25 games is .403. Griffith of Brooklyn, who played in a like number of contests is the runner up to Gowdy with an average of .394.

Rogers Hornsby of the Cardinals crashed out four home runs, tying the record of his American League rival, Kenneth Williams. Each has thirteen. The St. Louis star is the first man in the league to pass the century mark for total base honors, being out in front with 112 bases. He is in fourth place among the batters with an average of .377, just ten points behind Bigbee of Pittsburgh, who is third with .387.

Bancroft of New York has tied Hornsby for the honors in scoring. Each having crossed the plate 38 times. Canly of Pittsburgh leads the base stealers with 10 thefts.

Kruger Beaten.

As a result of consistent hitting, Myatt of Milwaukee, ousted Kruger of Indianapolis from batting leadership of the American Association with an average of .408, according to figures which include games of Wednesday. Kruger is second with .387, and Hendryx of St. Paul third with .392.

With a total of fourteen homers to his credit, Bunny Brief of Kansas City is setting a pace in advance of the home run hitters of the major leagues. "Red" Russell of Minneapolis has connected with ten homers, and Kruger nine. Christensen of St. Paul and Mathews of Milwaukee are tied for honors in base stealing with eight apiece.

Davis of Tulsa, the leading home run hitter of the Western League, is making a bid for the batting leadership of the league. The Tulsa slugger today is in third place with an average of .391 and ten homers.

Picture Man Hoodoo to Famous Old Racehorse; May Mourn Him

(By the Associated Press)

LOUISVILLE Ky.—The announcement that Old Rosebud had met with an accident which forced his owner to destroy him was received with regret by all followers of the thoroughbred sport. But in the Blue Grass the loss of the once great race horse touched a much wider circle that that composed exclusively of followers of the turf.

For Old Rosebud was a true son of the Blue Grass. The time in which he won the fortieth renewal of the Kentucky Derby in 1914—2:03 2-5—still stands as the record for the classic, notwithstanding the sterling thoroughbreds, including Sir Barton, Omar Khayyam, Regret and Morvich, that have gone the mile and one-quarter to win the race in the eight years that have passed since the sturdy son of Uncle led the field to the wire at Churchill Downs. His name has been a household word and the symbol of speed in Kentucky homes for years and persons who never had witnessed a race spoke familiarly of "when Rosebud won the Derby."

Old Rosebud was purchased from John E. Madden by Hamilton C. Applegate and Frank Weir for a trifling sum as a yearling in 1912.

Before meeting with an accident in his early three-year-old form he was probably the speediest race horse this country has ever known. As a 2-year-old he ran five-eighths of a mile race at Douglas Park in 58 2-5 with 115 pounds up.

A Bad Luck Omen.

Writing of the death of the great racer, V. Sanders, turf writer and member of the staff of the Louisville Times, relates the following incident in connection with a superstition entertained by Mr. Weir that to permit the holder of the Derby record to be photographed would bring bad luck to the splendid animal.

"Just after Old Rosebud had won the Derby I was assigned by the managing editor of the Times to take the staff photographer to the Downs and get a picture of the horse in action. Mr. Weir threw up both hands and flatly refused me a picture of Old Rosebud, saying, 'It was the worst luck in the world. I shall never consent to your taking Old Rosebud in any position.'"

"I saw Colonel W. E. Applegate, father of the half-owner of Old Rosebud, and asked him to arrange it. He tried hard to get Mr. Weir to bring the horse out on the course but to no avail. Finally Colonel Applegate told me that the colt was going to be worked the wrong way of the course the day before he was to be shipped east and if I could have the photographer there he thought there would be a chance to get his picture. We were on hand and Old Rosebud was brought out and given a stiff breeze. The photograph was made showing his wonderful stride."

"That afternoon he was taken to Belmont Park. In his first race there he practically broke down. Mr. Weir, when he heard that picture of the colt had been made before he left Louisville, attributed his mishap to that fact."

NEW WONDER ATHLETE OF THE WEST

"Tiny" Hartranft throwing the discus.

"Tiny" Hartranft, Stanford university, is the latest star to flash over the collegiate athletic world. He is one of the men the eastern colleges fear in the intercollegiate meet at Cambridge. "Tiny" has approached the records of Ralph Rose and Jim Duncan in the shotput and discus throws respectively.

to his credit. He slammed out ten hits in his last eight games, boosting himself out of fourth place, a position he occupied a week ago. The averages include games of Tuesday. Mannush of Omaha continues to lead in batting with an average of .426, with Carl East of Wichita second with .426. Elsh of Sioux City, who was second a week ago, dropped into tenth place. Hemingway of Sioux City continues set to the pace for the base stealers with an even dozen.

McCormick of Nashville is giving Chulite of Mobile a fight for the batting leadership of the Southern Association, with Schulte in the lead with an average of .414. McCormick is second with .394, and McMillan of Memphis with .376. The figures include games of Tuesday.

Barrett and Connolly of Little Rock are sharing the spotlight with Niehoff of Mobile for honors in home run hitting, each having slammed out five. Henry of New Orleans is showing the way to the base stealers with sixteen. Morse of Nashville is the runner-up with fourteen.

MRS. MCCORMICK GIVES CONSENT TO MARRIAGE

(By the Associated Press)

11 SOONER BASEBALL MEN GET LETTERS AS TEAM CLOSES SEASON

Three Pitchers Win Honor With State University Nine, Owen Reports.

NORMAN, June 3.—(Special)—Eleven men of the University of Oklahoma will be awarded letters in baseball this year, Will Owen, coach announced. Of this number three are pitchers, five infielders and three outfielders.

Captain Adam "Gober" Seitz, Billings, shortstop, was the only third year letter man on the team. He finished a successful season at the short field position and easily led the team in hitting.

Chancy Dolph, Henryetta, veteran twirler, received his second letter as a moundman. "Tex" Durkee, Fort Worth, and Gus Johnson, Oklahoma City, won their first letters as slab artists. The latter two will be back next spring while Dolph graduates this year.

The trio of outfielders, "Jap" Haskell, Anadarko, "Tarz" Marsh, Fort Worth, and "Tub" Tyler, Idabel, again held down the out garden as creditably as any in the Valley. Haskell and Tyler played there last year with the Sooners but Marsh will be back for his third season on the team next year.

Extra Letter Man Added.

Vern Lyons, Guthrie, earned his letter for work in both the infield and outfield. He replaced Tyler in right field toward the close of the season when Tyler and shifted to first base to fill the gap left by Obie Bristow, who withdrew from school.

Maurice McLaughlin, Norman and Dave Phillips, Edmond, complete the infield with Tyler and Seitz, both will receive their first letters. McLaughlin held down the keystone sack while Phillips was stationed at the hot corner.

"Bill" Chesser, Norman officiated at the receiving end of the battery for the Sooners during most of the games. He was on the team last year but earned his first letter this season.

Several men played in a few games but not enough to win an "O". Among these were: Ford Bishop, Yale and John Hogan, Pryor, infielders; Ronal Cullen, Henryetta, catcher; Roy Seitz, Billings, Esker Lee, Hollis, and Paul Lindsay, Pauls Valley, outfielders; Obie Bristow, Ardmore, the teams regular first sacker at the beginning of the season withdrew from school before he played in enough games to earn a letter.

FATS AND LEANS ALIKE MAY FIND WATER A RELIEF

(By the Associated Press)

OMAHA, Neb., June 3.—Swimming as a means for reducing those who are too heavy, and for increasing the weight of those who are too light, is advocated by Pete Wendell, director of swimming at the Omaha Athletic Club.

Coach Wendell, who is member of both the championship and rules committees of the Western Amateur Athletic union and also of the National Swimming Instructors' association of Pittsburgh, Pa., is conducting a campaign to encourage greater interest in swimming.

For women he is advocating the water sport not only as a means of reducing but as a means of obtaining better form. Diving is described as "that delightful desert of aquatic sports." In urging it as a method for developing muscular control.

Probably the most popular stroke being taught in Coach Wendell's classes is the modern trudgeon crawl. This stroke, according to the coach, is the easiest to master and he declares that a swimmer travels faster and farther with it than with the older styles. Coach Wendell describes the stroke as similar to the old over-arm stroke, inasmuch as the arms are lifted alternately from the water, body is face down, and legs are held straight, kicking three times for each arm pull.

O. Vernon, Brents, Miller, Cassidy and others were named on the prospective list. Most of those who were out yesterday are well known players, and the coach hopes to have one of the strongest teams in the league. He will play his opening game Tuesday, with the Athletic Association team.

Fans who have been speculating as to what kind of a team Coach Thompson will have in the city league were given their first opportunity to "look 'em over" Friday afternoon when he had a number of candidates on the field. It was a "likely looking bunch" too, according to opinions of fans.

FIVE AWARDED TRACK LETTERS BY ADA COLLEGE

Five men have been awarded letters for track at East Central college, Coach Thompson, in announcing the awarding of the letters, said only five men had qualified and that the athletic committee had examined all records before naming them out of the entire track squad of more than 15.

J. H. Martin, captain of this year's squad, who has been elected captain for 1923, was named at the head of the list. Harvey Neely, Edward Stephens, Delos Weston and Fred Lane were other men awarded letters.

The coach said he was well pleased with the showing of his men, as this is the first year East Central ever produced an organized track squad.

About Wrinkles

Shoes that wrinkle on the feet will put wrinkles on the face. Just think a moment and you'll say,
"That's true."

It is better to know a wrinkle or two about shoe comfort and shoe value than to spoil one's good looks by trying to endure discomfort.

The choicest leathers, the finest workmanship, and sixty-nine years of shoe-making experience have built more comfort and wear into a pair of Edwin Clapp Shoes than you may think possible.

Edwin Clapp Shoes are individual shoes. They are your shoes. They appeal to people who want the best. You will get surprising foot-ease and wear out of them. And they keep their shape.

Try a pair of Edwin Clapp Shoes. You will be enthusiastic about them.
